

Malenkov Record Cited
 Tokyo Bureau of The New York Times In THE NEW YORK TIMES of Oct. 15 appeared a comment on a statement made by Congressman H. Celler.
 "I do not know Mr. Celler, and furthermore, I consider that in my possibility of a political refugee I should not enter political struggles of a country which shelters me with so much generosity. However, I feel I must send you these lines because Mr. Celler made with no knowledge of the facts, a grave accusation against one of my fellow-countrymen, Nicolas Malenkov, who is persecuted by the former of being "apparently a Communist" and of having "very questionable relations with the Communists."

The Times

These accusations are just as in-founded as they are grave. I can state this with full knowledge of the facts since I was Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior of Russia during the critical period when the Russians and their Communist leaders fought to retain political control of the country.
 As already well known, my Government, the last democratic Government of Russia, was forced to resign in 1947 following Yulinsky's ultimatum.
 Furthermore, I consider that my political record of uncompromising resistance against the Nazis as well as the Communists entitles me to know what in my own country, has been presented as pro-Communist.

Mr. Malenkov left the country in 1948 and since that time has resided in the United States. He was never a Communist, nor affiliated to the Communist Party, either while in Russia or abroad. Gen. KENNETH ROBERTSON New York, Oct. 17, 1962.

Political Ad. 10-17-62

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
 SOURCE METHOD EXEMPTION 3020
 KAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
 DATE 2007

NY Times - 17 Nov 52